ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The backtest is a total failure: zero wins, 45.89% drawdown, and a Sharpe of -1.13 prove the signal logic is fundamentally broken for VOXR. A sample of four trades offers no statistical confidence, making the results practically noise. The strategy is systematically generating losing signals under this regime. Next step, pause the bot and audit the entry triggers against VOXR's specific volatility profile before any further testing.
