ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The strategy generated a -32.73% ROI with a negative Sharpe ratio of -1.13 and a 0% win rate across only four trades. The maximum drawdown of 45.89% indicates severe capital erosion without any profitable signals to offset the losses. With such a small sample size, the statistical confidence is negligible and results may reflect random variance rather than systematic flaws. The complete absence of winning trades suggests the entry logic fails to identify valid setups for VOXR. Refine the signal parameters or test alternative indicators to establish a baseline of positive expectancy.
