ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

This backtest for VOXR under strategy EVO_WEBIDEA_v111 is a clear failure, showing a negative thirty-two point seven percent return and a negative Sharpe ratio of negative one point one three. With zero wins across four trades and a severe forty-five point eight nine percent drawdown, the sample size is too small to establish any statistical confidence in the results. The complete lack of positive outcomes indicates the core signal logic is fundamentally misaligned with this asset's price action. The immediate next step is to discard this configuration and re-optimize entry thresholds before risking further capital.
