ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The VOXR daily opportunity strategy underperformed, delivering a negative ROI of -2.01% and a -0.05 Sharpe ratio over just three trades. With a win rate of 33.3% and an 11.32% maximum drawdown, the sample size is too small to establish statistical significance for this specific regime. The strategy failed to capture the asset's volatility efficiently while exposing capital to disproportionate downside risk. We must expand the backtest period to evaluate robustness across multiple market cycles before deploying live capital.
