ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The VOXR Daily Opportunity strategy failed statistically with a negative Sharpe ratio and a meager 33.3% win rate across only three trades. This extremely low trade volume renders the sample size insufficient to draw any meaningful conclusions about the strategy's true expectancy. The -11.32% maximum drawdown highlights a severe lack of risk control during this volatile period. We must reject this parameter set immediately and avoid deploying live capital until a robust sample size proves otherwise.
